

PARTNERSHIP DAY: TRANSFORMING THE WAY WE WORK

An FMCS pre-conference event on Labor Management Partnerships

August 16, 2016 • Chicago, IL

Keynote by ROBERT REICH, Chancellor's Professor of Public Policy at the University of California Berkeley and former Secretary of Labor.

PARTNERSHIP DAY spotlights labor management partnership as an operating strategy that can transform the way we work and create continuous improvements. This national event features expert panels, networking opportunities and leaders from:

- Kaiser Permanente and the Coalition of Kaiser Permanente Unions
- United Auto Workers and Ford Motor Company
- International Paper and United Steelworkers

Learn more about the benefits and challenges that occur in partnerships and how management and unions can work together more productively to build lasting success.

REGISTER TODAY at <http://meetingservicesinc.com/fmcs> — early bird rate before May 31.